

With the American force in Germany as shown by recent snapshots: The bridge of boats across the Rhine at Coblenz with Ehrenbreitstein, the impregnable fortress, flying the United States flag. Wide World.

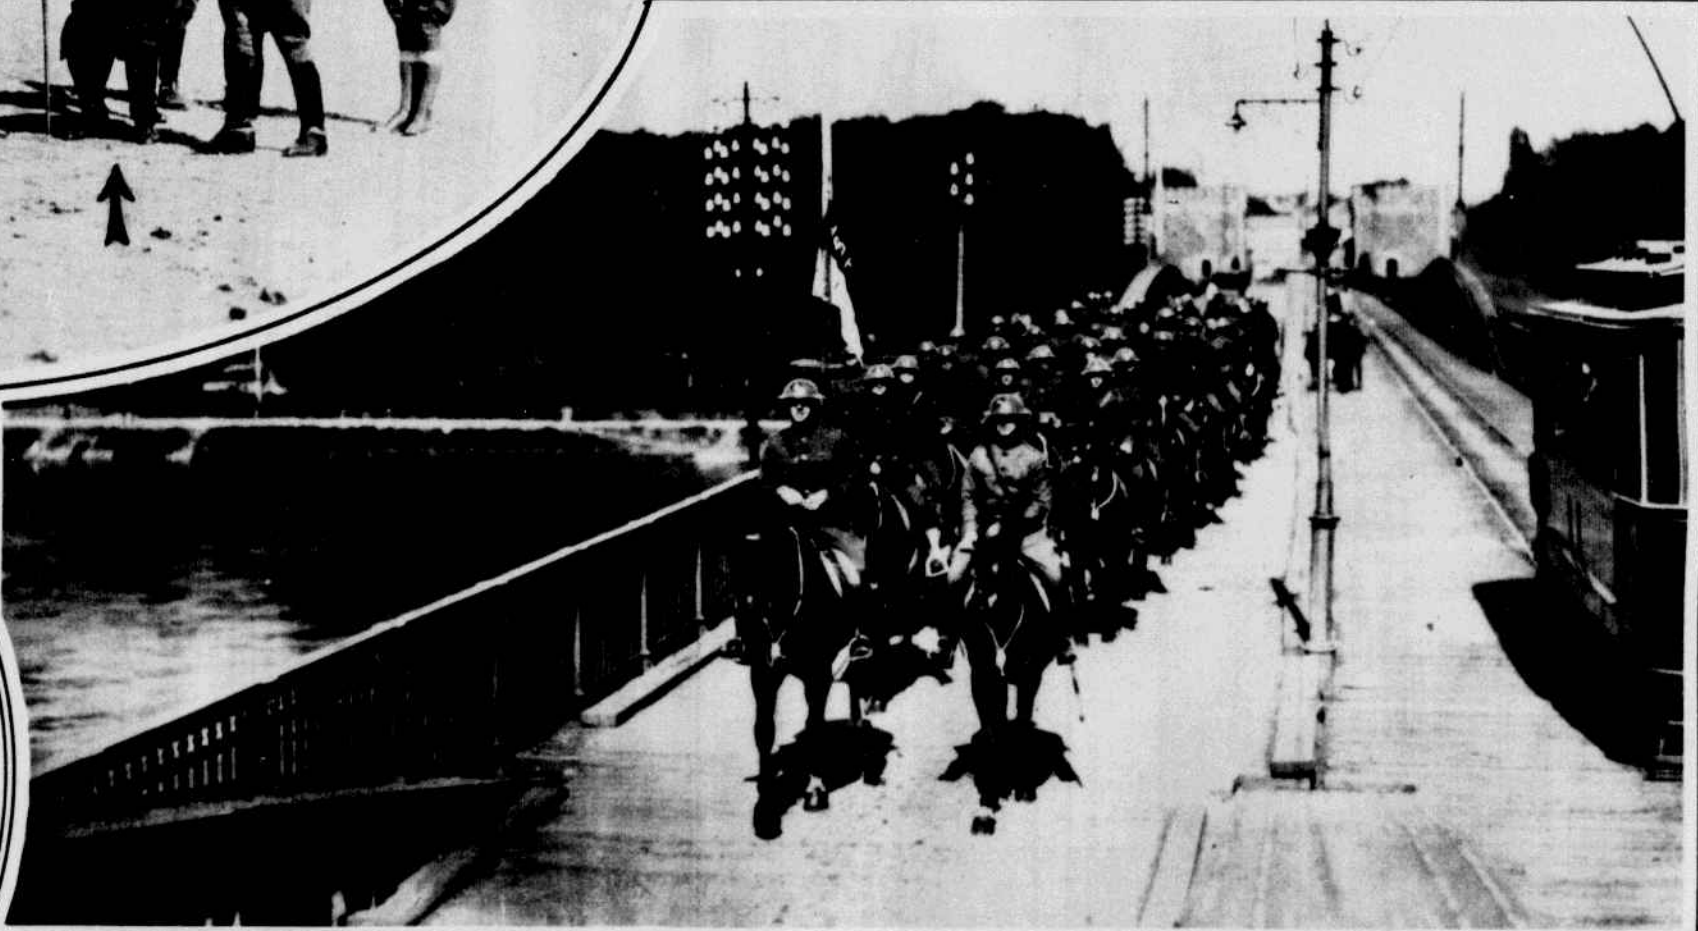

Officers of the A. E. F. in Germany keep fit by strenuous polo games. Photograph shows Major-Gen. Henry T. Allen (at left) ready to take on a match, recently. Wide World.

Ambassador Wallace (arrow) inspecting the Sixth Field Artillery, U. S. A., on the Rhine. Note Gen. Allen, with swagger stick, at the right. Wide World.

In circle.—One of the pleasing exhibits at the Dog and Pony Show recently given at Wynnewood, the estate of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Ashton, near Philadelphia. Miss Ruby Fippard with her treasured puppies. Underwood & Underwood.

U. S. cavalry leaving Coblenz for a long practice march. While the A. E. F. on the Rhine is small, it is at the maximum of efficiency and ready to meet any emergency. Wide World.

Opera stars off for Italy on the liner King Alexander give their friends a parting treat, an impromptu concert. Left to right: Giacomo Rimini, Titta Ruffo, Mme. Tetrazzini and Rosa Raisa. International.

A woman named as Special Deputy Police Commissioner, Mrs. George W. Loft, wife of the ex-Congressman and Tammany leader. She succeeds Mrs. Ellen O'Grady and will give especial attention to the new woman's precinct. Underwood & Underwood.